

Alhassan Kallon - Curriculum Vitae

Personal Information

Name: Alhassan Kallon

Age: 25

Origin: Karina Town, Biriwa Chiefdom, Northern Sierra Leone

Biography.

Alhassan Kallon, a dynamic and passionate youth leader, hails from Karina Town in Biriwa Chiefdom, located in the northern part of Sierra Leone. At 25 years of age, Alhassan has already made significant strides in youth advocacy and community leadership, driven by his deep-rooted commitment to African development and cultural awareness.

Alhassan recently completed the West Africa Senior School Certificate Examination (WASSCE), marking a significant milestone in his academic journey. His educational background has equipped him with a solid foundation to pursue his passion for learning about the diverse perspectives of African people and how these views shape the continent's development and its global influence.

A prominent figure in youth leadership, Alhassan is the co-founder and Vice-president of Young Voices of Africa, an organization dedicated to amplifying the voices of young Africans. His role extends beyond administrative duties; as a youth leader and ambassador, Alhassan is at the forefront of advocacy efforts, promoting the interests and perspectives of African youth. His dedication to this cause is reflected in his active engagement in various initiatives aimed at enhancing the socio-economic conditions of African communities.

In addition to his work with Young Voices of Africa, Alhassan serves as a community leader for Makine-Panlap in Sierra Leone. In this capacity, he spearheads community projects and represents the interests of local residents, striving to improve their quality of life through sustainable development efforts.

Alhassan's skills in advocacy and public speaking are complemented by his leadership abilities and profound interest in cultural awareness. His passion for learning about the ways of life of African people and their developmental trajectories drives his commitment to making a positive impact on the continent. Through his work, Alhassan continues to inspire and empower young Africans, fostering a sense of unity and purpose in the pursuit of a brighter future for Africa.

Alhassan Kallon stands as a beacon of hope and inspiration, demonstrating that with dedication and vision, young leaders can affect meaningful change in their communities and beyond.

Education.

West Africa Senior School Certificate Examination (WASSCE)

- Recently completed

Leadership and Advocacy Experience

1. Young Voices of Africa

Co-founder, Vice-president, Youth Leader, Youth Ambassador

- Co-founded the organization to advocate for the voices of African youth.
- Serve as Vice-president, overseeing various projects and initiatives.
- Act as a youth leader and ambassador, promoting African development and cultural awareness.
- Engage in advocacy, driven by a passion for learning about the diverse perspectives of African people, especially in terms of development and global impact.

2. Community Leadership

Community Leader, Makine-Panlap, Sierra Leone

- Lead community initiatives and represent the interests of local residents.
- Work towards the betterment of the community through various projects and engagement activities.

Skills and Interests

- Advocacy and Public Speaking: Skilled in representing and advocating for youth perspectives on African development.
- Leadership: Experienced in leading teams and organizing community projects.

- Cultural Awareness: Passionate about learning and promoting the cultural diversity of Africa and its impact on the world.

Contact Information

Phone: +232 99 828077

Email: al hassankallon77@gmail.com

Alhassan Kallon - Biography Summary.

Alhassan Kallon, 25, is a passionate youth leader from Karina Town, Biriwa Chiefdom in Northern Sierra Leone. Having recently completed the West Africa Senior School Certificate Examination (WASSCE), Alhassan is committed to advocating for African development and cultural awareness.

He co-founded Young Voices of Africa and serves as its Vice-president, Youth Leader, and Ambassador, where he actively promotes the interests and perspectives of African youth. Alhassan is also a community leader for Makine-Panlap in Sierra Leone, leading local initiatives to improve residents' lives.

With strong skills in advocacy, public speaking, and leadership, Alhassan is dedicated to learning about and promoting the diverse cultures and development of African communities, aiming to inspire and empower young Africans toward a brighter future.